2000-2001 NORTH CAROLINA BASKET-

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR DICK BADDOUR

Dick Baddour, a 1966 graduate of the University of North Carolina, was named Director of Athletics on June 25, 1997. In his three years as director, the Tar Heels have undergone a number of changes, yet remain one of the premier athletic programs in the Atlantic Coast Conference and across the nation. Baddour combines an easy-going, friendly and visionary style of management with a love and passion for the University he has served for more than three decades.

Baddour sets a high standard of integrity for the program he leads. High graduation rates, NCAA compliance, sound fiscal management, competitive success and national respect are cornerstones of his blueprint for the department's mission to the University.

The Goldsboro, N.C., native heads a program that with 28 varsity sports is the largest in the ACC. Last year, the Tar Heels finished fifth in the nation in the Sears Cup, a competition that ranks Division I universities for their NCAA championship performances. It was the fifth time in the seven-year history of the competition that Carolina finished in the top five. What makes those top five finishes even more impressive is the fact that Carolina's undergraduate enrollment of just over 15,000 is the 19th-largest among the schools that placed in the Top 25 in the Sears Cup standings last year.

Carolina won six ACC championships in 1999-2000, equalling the top figure in the league, and 21 sports competed in NCAA postseason play. The women's soccer team won the national championship again and the men's basketball team won an NCAA Regional and advanced to the Final Four for the second time in his three years as athletic director. Last year, 250 UNC student-athletes completed their studies with a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or better. There were also 243 Tar Heels on the ACC Honor Roll.

During the past school year, Baddour was a member of the NCAA Championship Cabinet and NCAA Football Issues Committee, oversaw groundbreaking on the indoor football and track facility, worked on plans to include the athletic department in the University's upcoming capital campaign, and completed searches for new head coaches in men's basketball and men's lacrosse.

Fiscal responsibility has been a key directive in Baddour's tenure as athletic director. He instituted a number of measures designed to keep UNC among the nation's most competitive athletic programs, while at the same time ensuring a sound financial future. Baddour leads a department that has a budget in excess of $30 million, which is 16th-largest among the schools that placed in the Top 25 in the Sears Cup standings last year.

Baddour has served as athletic director in one of the most dynamic periods in the history of Carolina athletics. He has hired new head coaches in six sports, including football, men's basketball, men's golf, women's tennis, baseball and men's lacrosse. Just months after taking the job, Baddour had to replace Dean Smith, the winningest coach in basketball history, and Mack Brown, the second-winningest football coach in UNC history. Baddour tabbed Bill Guthridge to follow the legendary Smith, and defensive coordinator Carl Torbush to replace Brown.

Guthridge became the winningest first-year head coach in college basketball history by leading the Tar Heels to 34 wins, an ACC championship and a trip to the NCAA Final Four. He won 80 games in three seasons as head coach and led the Tar Heels back to the Final Four for the second time in 1999-2000 before retiring in late June 2000. On July 11, 2000,

Baddour hired former Tar Heel forward and Notre Dame head coach Matt Doherty to lead the UNC basketball program.

Torbush has directed UNC to a pair of postseason bowl victories. In 1998, he became the first rookie football head coach at UNC to earn a trip to the postseason.

Baddour has hired four spring sport head coaches, moves that have revitalized those programs. He hired Mike Fox, a former Tar Heel who played in the 1978 College World Series, as baseball coach; John Inman, 1984 NCAA men's golf champion and former PGA Tour golfer, as the men's golf coach; Roland Thornqvist, former National Indoor Singles Champion, as the women's tennis coach; and this past spring, he hired John Haus to rebuild the men's lacrosse program. Haus won NCAA championships in 1981 and 1982 as a Tar Heel defensive star and coached Johns Hopkins University to the national semifinals the past two seasons.

Early in his tenure, Baddour established a number of task forces to examine specific functions within the department and guide those administrative units as they prepare for the 21st century. Baddour formed committees to examine recruiting, admissions and academic progress of student-athletes; finances; student-athlete development; and communications.

Baddour continues to direct a vast facilities expansion project that stretches from Kenan Stadium to Finley Golf Course. The McCaskill Soccer Center and the Francis E. Henry Stadium (field hockey and lacrosse) were dedicated two years ago and Finley Golf Course was totally re-designed in November 1999.

Baddour, who has served on 12 ACC committees, is past chair of the ACC Athletic Directors, will serve as a member of ACC Committees on Football, Basketball and Television and has chaired the ACC Tennis Committee.

He is in his 34th year of continuous service to the University. Prior to his current position, he spent 11 years under John Swofford as the executive associate director of athletics.

After graduating from UNC, Baddour spent one year as a cost accountant for Burlington Industries. He then returned to UNC in 1967 as assistant dean of men.

In 1971 he became assistant dean of undergraduate admissions. Coordinating freshman admissions took him into every high school in the state.

In 1975, he was awarded a Master of Arts degree in education with a major in student personnel administration and a minor in business administration.

Baddour was then named Assistant Dean at the UNC School of Law from 1983 to 1986. He served as the school's director of admissions and scholarship programs, head of personnel and supervisor of career planning and placement. He was also in charge of minority recruitment.

He became associate athletic director in 1986, was promoted to senior associate director in 1990 and to executive associate in 1995.

A 1962 graduate of Goldsboro High School, Baddour and his wife, Lynda, have two sons and a daughter. Allen graduated from UNC and Carolina law school and practices law in Chapel Hill. He and his wife, Holly, have a 9-month-old son, Henry. David is a UNC graduate and Certified Public Accountant. He is in his second year of law school at UNC and lives with his wife, Carey, in Carrboro. Jennifer is a graduate of UNC Greensboro and earned her master's from the UNC School of Social Work. She is employed as a social worker in Charlotte. Lynda taught kindergarten and first grade for 17 years.

What is the Educational Foundation? The Educational Foundation is the oldest foundation on the UNC campus and holds a status comparable to the Business Foundation, the Medical Foundation and other fund-raising organizations working for the benefit of the University.

What is the purpose of the Educational Foundation? The Educational Foundation was established to offer financial aid to worthy student-athletes seeking an education at the University of North Carolina and to support the University's athletic program by providing services and funds for the construction of facilities or purchase of equipment.

How much support does the Educational Foundation actually provide? Since its founding in 1938, the Educational Foundation has provided scholarships, either partial or full, to over 7,000 student-athletes. Nearly 400 student-athletes will be awarded scholarships during the 2000-01 school year at a cost of more than $5 million.

What are the different levels of giving to the Educational Foundation?

Little Ram ($100) — Contributions of any amount are welcome, however, individuals contributing $100 or more have the opportunity to purchase season football tickets, the location of which is subject to the point system; gain access to the Rams Room in Kenan Fieldhouse for home football games; participate in football ticket exchanges; qualify for mini-season basketball ticket packages; purchase group travel packages; receive the RamPage Newsletter, car window decals and invitations to annual Foundation functions which feature Carolina coaches as guest speakers.

Ram ($150) — In addition to that above, a Ram donor has the opportunity to receive football and basketball media guides and to participate in basketball ticket exchanges.

Rameses ($375) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Rameses donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of two season football tickets; additional tickets may be purchased, location subject to the point system.

Big Ram ($750) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Big Ram donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of four season football tickets and to receive an assigned parking space.

Super Ram ($1,500) — In addition to the benefits received at the Ram level, a Super Ram donor has the opportunity to purchase and maintain the assigned location of up to eight season football tickets and to receive an assigned parking space.

Can a donor contribute in ways other than through the annual giving program? Yes. Carolina was one of the first schools in the nation to set up an endowment program for athletics. This program consists of $15,000 and $30,000 life memberships as well as $50,000 and $100,000 endowed scholarships which may be set up through various giving vehicles. (Note: These levels will increase to $75,000 and $150,000, respectively, on 1/1/2001).

Does the Foundation have chapters at the local level? There are currently 45 local Educational Foundation chapters which meet at least once a year. Many of the coaches attend these gatherings, giving donors an early opportunity to hear about recruiting, prospects for the upcoming season and schedules.

Who provides the leadership for the Educational Foundation? The Foundation's outside officers include a Chairman, three Vice-Chairmen, a Secretary, Treasurer, Counsel and Past Chairman. These officers, together with the at-large members, comprise the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee is the decision-making body of the Educational Foundation and reports its actions to the Board of Directors.

In his 14th year as President, Moyer G. Smith provides leadership within the Foundation. He is in his 14th year as President. He was appointed to the position in December 1986. There are also four vice-presidents within the office: John D. Cherry, Executive Vice-President; Neal B. Harrell, V.P. for Donor Services; Sue Walsh, V.P. for Endowment; and Dawn D. McPherson, Administrative V.P.

How can one become a contributor to the Educational Foundation? By contacting the Educational Foundation at (919) 945-2000 or by writing P.O. Box 2446, Chapel Hill, N.C. 27515.
